

ABOUT THE SUN...

The Sun is a weekly, community newspaper with 1,700 paid subscribers. The newspaper is independently owned and published weekly by Sybil and Mike Conley.

The Sun has been in business in western Clinton County since 1880, and remains the market leaders for news and information about Trenton and New Baden, Illinois and the Wesclin School District.

CORE BELIEFS

Community newspapers should:

- Provide complete, factual and accurate information to the public it serves.
- Aid the profitability of area businesses and the community at large by providing advertising in a form that ensures it will be seen by interested consumers.
- Engage the community in public debate over serious issues that affect the community.
- Promote the bedrock principle that government “of the people” needs involvement “by the people” to help leaders judiciously make decisions that will positively impact the populace they serve.
- Have an opinion.

The Sun is a member of the Illinois Press Association, Southern Illinois Editorial Association, Trenton Chamber of Commerce, New Baden Chamber of Commerce and International Society of Weekly Newspaper Editors.
